In our dreams we used to dream a fantastic land called “ever-ever land”...
This land was amazing with lots of trees and magic creatures like beautiful, tiny fairies, dangerous pirates, wonderful fields!!!

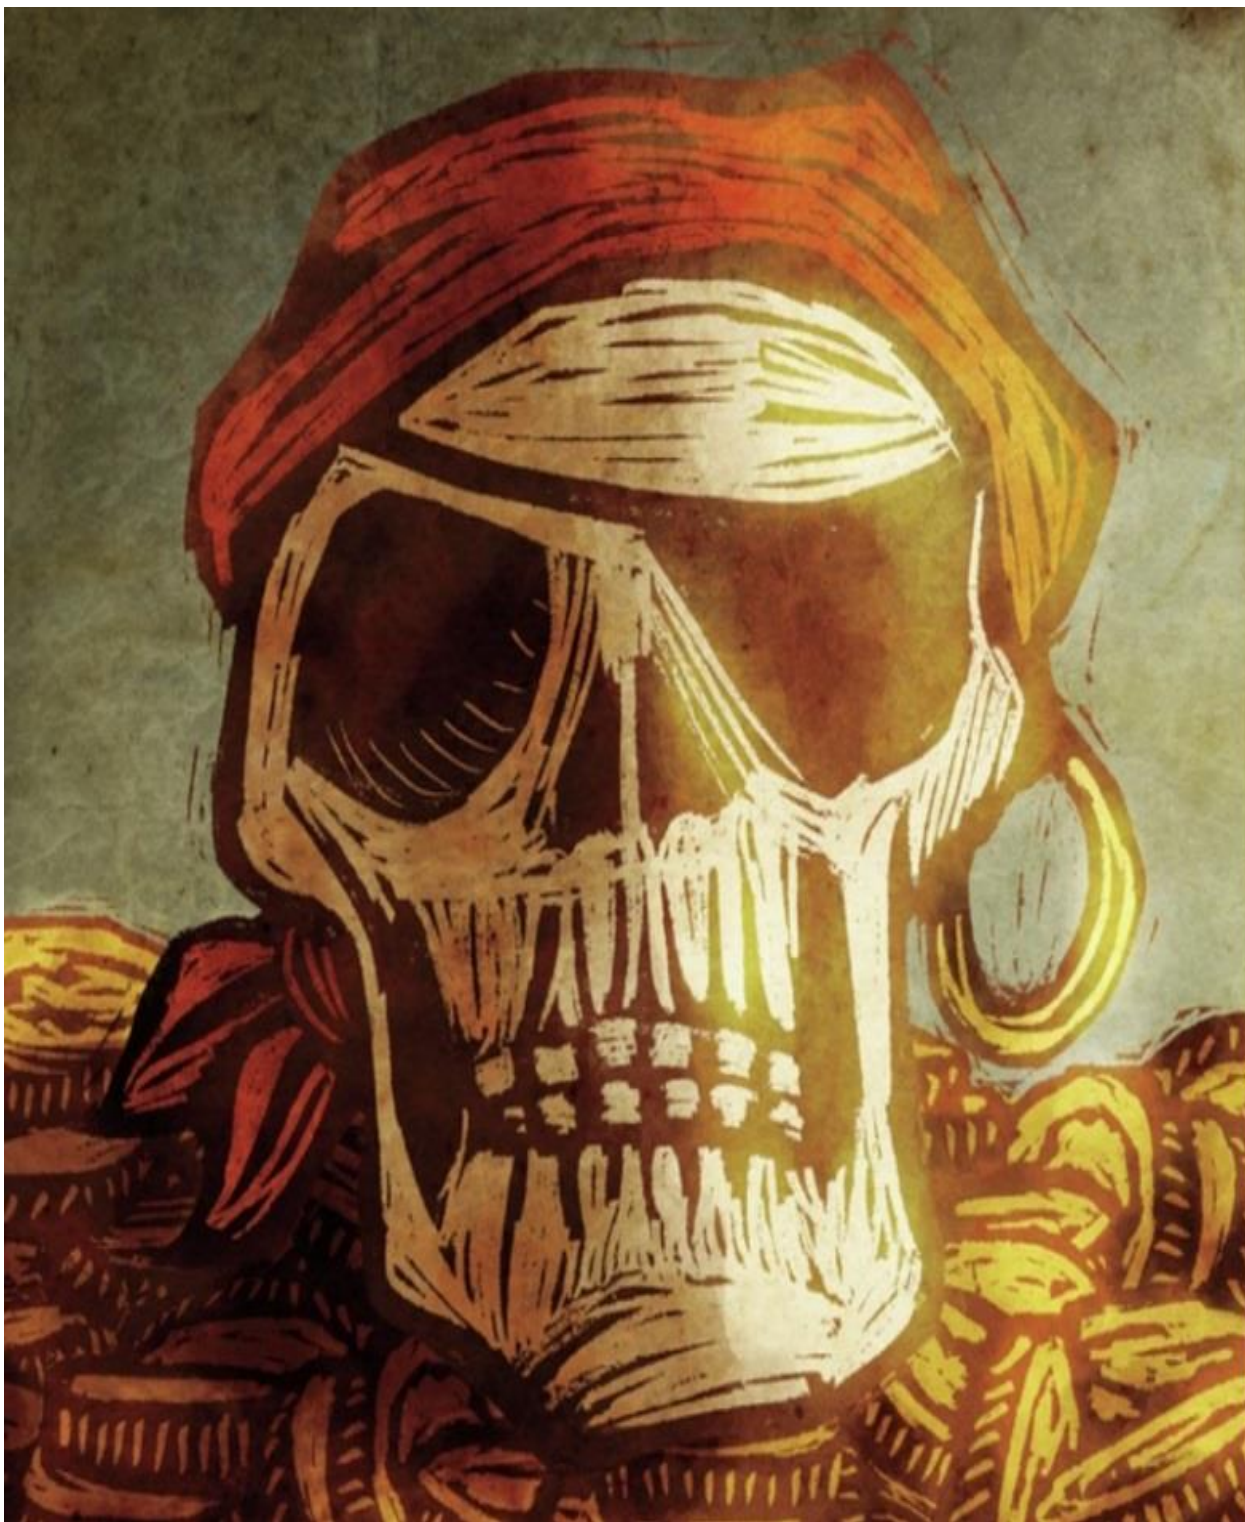

One day, a clever fairy discovered a scary cave. When she went into the dark cave, she met....

...she met a wise and friendly ghost.
It told her a story about wicked pirates.

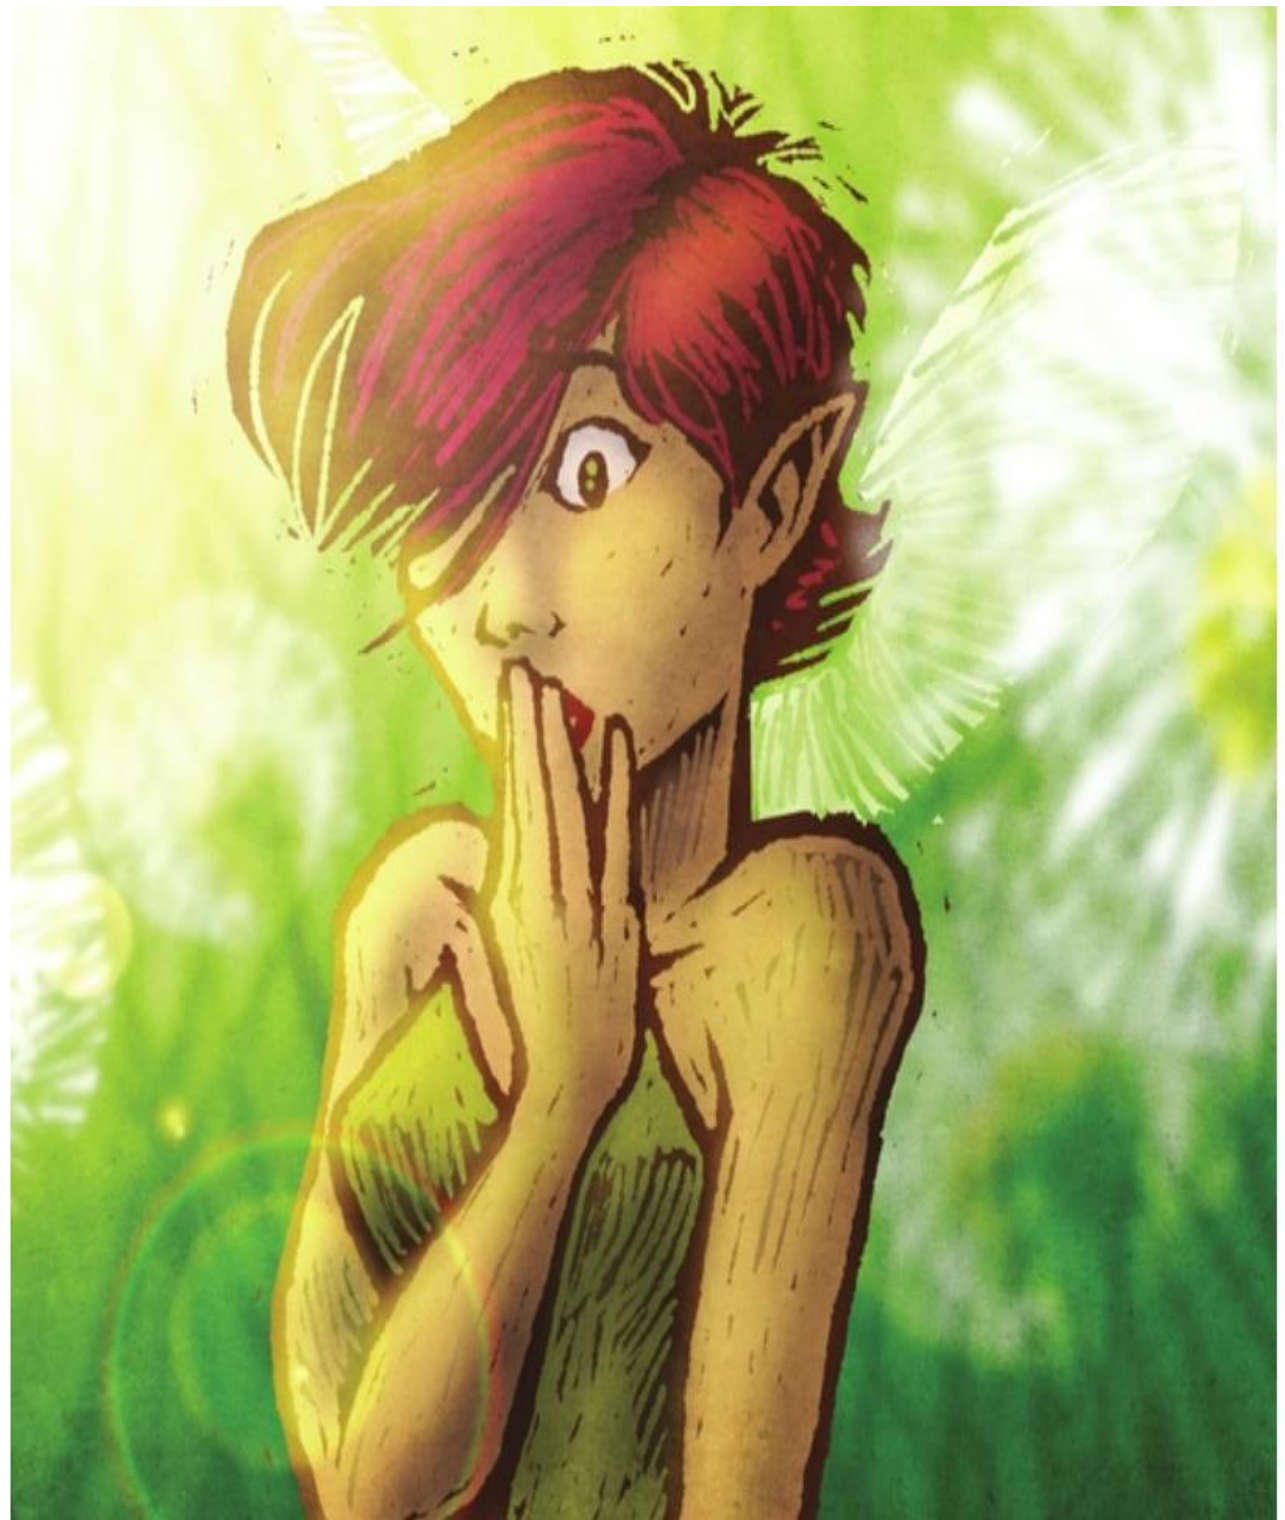

Two fierce pirates fought over a treasure all the time. The treasure had a terrible curse...

The pirate who won the fight, got the treasure but the curse of the treasure killed the pirate!!!

The fairy listened to the story. She was so frightened that she wanted to get away. She understood that the ghost was one of the pirates.

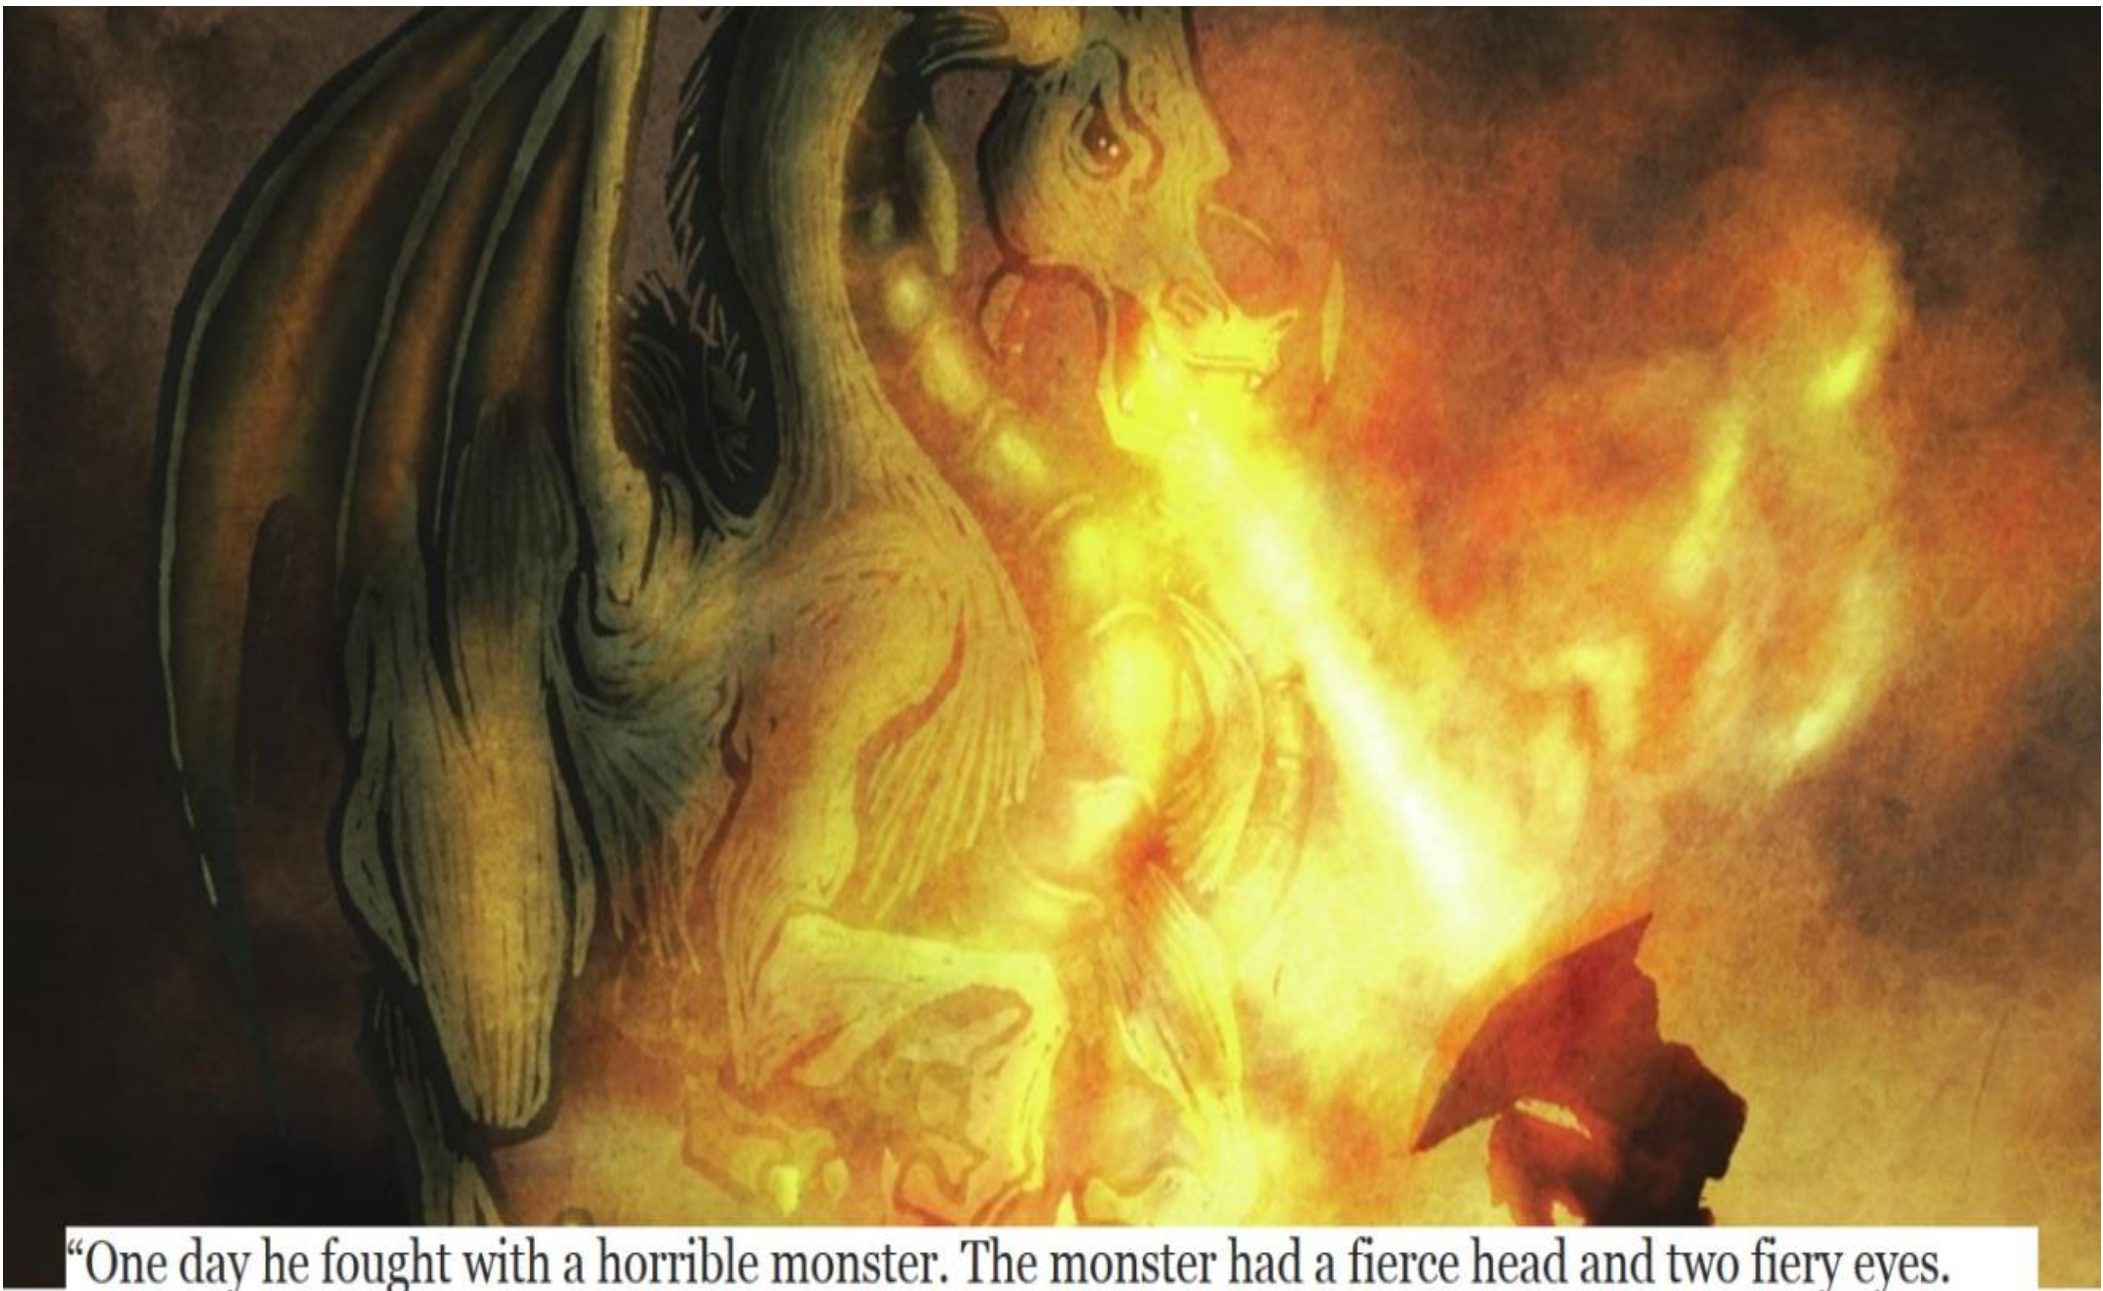

The fairy who was very frightened, went to her pretty house and she saw.....

... a woman warrior. “Don’t be afraid of me. I’m the ghost of the pirate who was killed in the battle for a cursed treasure”, this fierce woman said. “I’ll protect you to find the treasure. I am very friendly”.

“My father,
‘the Knight of the Lion’ had won the treasure in a dangerous fight.”

“One day he fought with a horrible monster. The monster had a fierce head and two fiery eyes. When he fought with it, he was afraid of it because it had flames from its mouth. It also had a big tail like a sword.”

“So that is my story. Please, bring me back to life”, said the spirit of the woman warrior.

“Ok, but if you find the treasure, you will die again”, said the fairy.

The woman came to life. But when she found the treasure, a big earthquake buried the treasure in the depths of the earth and...we fell off the bed and woke up! It was just our dream!
